“A writer needs a pen,
an artist needs a brush,
but a filmmaker needs an army.”

Orson Welles

Screen and Film School is located in Brighton and Manchester, two of the most welcoming, diverse and fun cities in which you could hope to study. Both locations offer an impressive cluster of creative organisations and individuals to network and collaborate with.

Our bespoke combination of practical courses, high-tech facilities, industry placements, Masterclasses, live project briefs and site visits will provide you with an understanding of how to operate in the film industry. We hope you choose to join us and allow us to support you in your journey to a successful and sustainable career in Screen and Film.

Who We Are

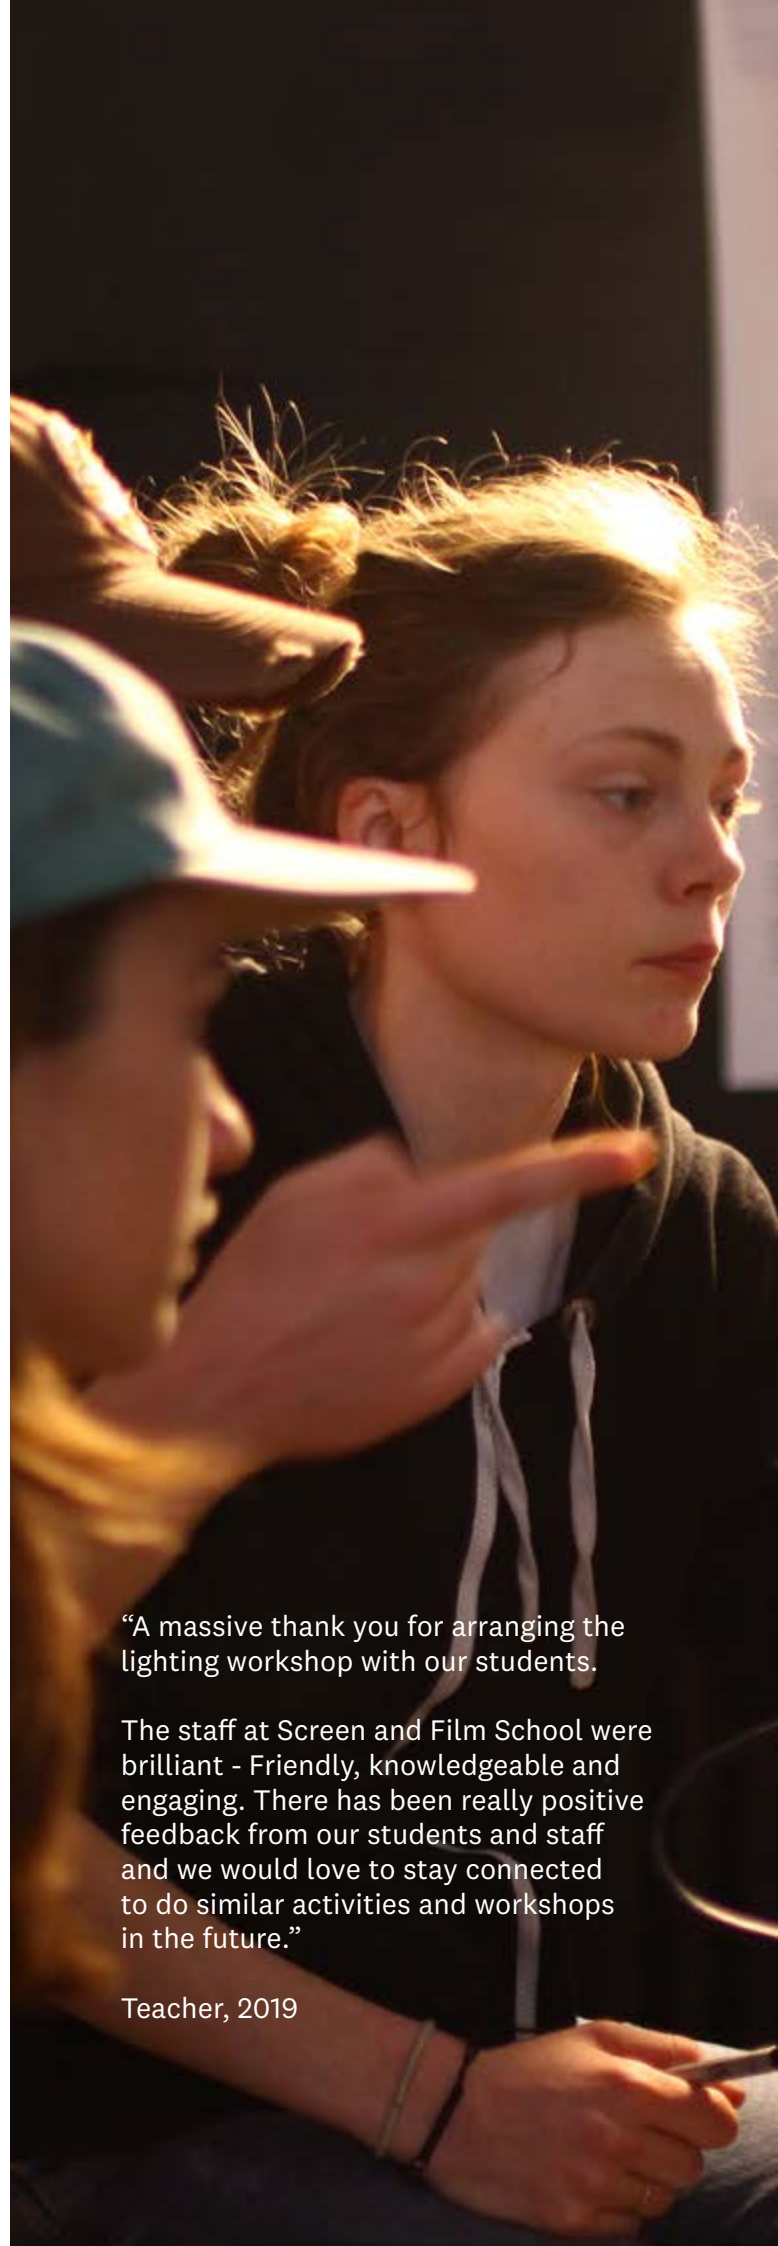

Rated as a top 10 UK Film School*, Screen and Film School has spent the last 15 years turning passionate filmmakers into industry professionals.

Get creative, be inspired and become film industry-ready in a dedicated community where film is king. The British film and television industry is booming.

Film is worth over £10bn a year and in 2018 Netflix and Amazon almost doubled their spending to £280m on British-made TV shows.

There's never been a better time to seize the growing career opportunities out there, and Screen and Film School puts it all at your fingertips. We've kick-started the careers of students into feature films, Netflix television series, documentaries, music videos, adverts, corporate work and promo videos.

Not to mention other diverse areas such as screenwriting, directing, producing, camera, sound, editing, lighting, location management and many more.

“A massive thank you for arranging the lighting workshop with our students.

The staff at Screen and Film School were brilliant - Friendly, knowledgeable and engaging. There has been really positive feedback from our students and staff and we would love to stay connected to do similar activities and workshops in the future.”
