House Viewings

Tips for viewing properties

We recommend viewing a property at least twice. You'll be more likely to notice problems the second time around.

- Take someone with you or let someone else know exactly where you are when you visit a property, just to err on the side of caution.
- It's also a good idea to visit the area at night. If you do this, please ensure you stick to the point above and take someone with you.
- Make sure you and all your other housemates view the property. Don't take someone else's word that the property is right for you.
- Compare a range of different landlords and properties.
- Take your time and don't let landlords pressure you - there is a surplus of good properties in the area and you will find somewhere you like.
- When you go to view, take notes and photos and use our checklist to make sure you don't miss anything.
- Get informed - knowing your rights will help you view properties more critically and put you in a stronger negotiating position.

How do I know what to look for when viewing a property

We have checklists and tools to help when you're viewing properties. Use the checklist below to make sure you ask the right questions and look into all the key areas:

- Does the place look well maintained?
- Will you be warm enough in winter?
- Will it be safe and secure?
- Does it have the space and facilities you need (i.e. washing machine, heating, fridge/freezer)?
- Are the current tenants happy with the landlord?
- Is the property affordable and good value?
- Is the area suitable for your needs?

Rent and bills

Below are some guidelines for the average price of accommodation in Manchester.

Accommodation	Price per month
Bed & Breakfast	£100-200+
Bedsits	£400+
Flat/House Share	£360+

Please note these prices do not include council tax, utility bills or food costs.

As a full time student you are not liable to pay council tax if you are house sharing with other students once your course commences.

Although you will be exempt during your course, you will not be exempt if you move into a property before the start of your course and in addition once the course ends.

The local Council Tax Office will be notified of students who are exempt after enrolment; however you can also request a letter to confirm your student status from reception.

Students are responsible for setting up and paying for their utility bills, including water, electric, gas and internet access.

Finding Housemates

Facebook is a good way to link up with people who are already at Screen and Film School Manchester or who are starting at the same time as you.

Some students set up groups prior to starting Screen and Film School Manchester in order to find housemates.

We welcome you to Join our Facebook page which is exclusive to Screen & Film School Manchester applicants.

Using this facility is a great way to post information about yourself, the type of housing you are looking for and also any rooms that you or others may know of which are available for rent.

Location

Where should I be looking?

Manchester is a thriving student city and there is an abundance of student accommodation options, so finding somewhere to live won't be difficult.

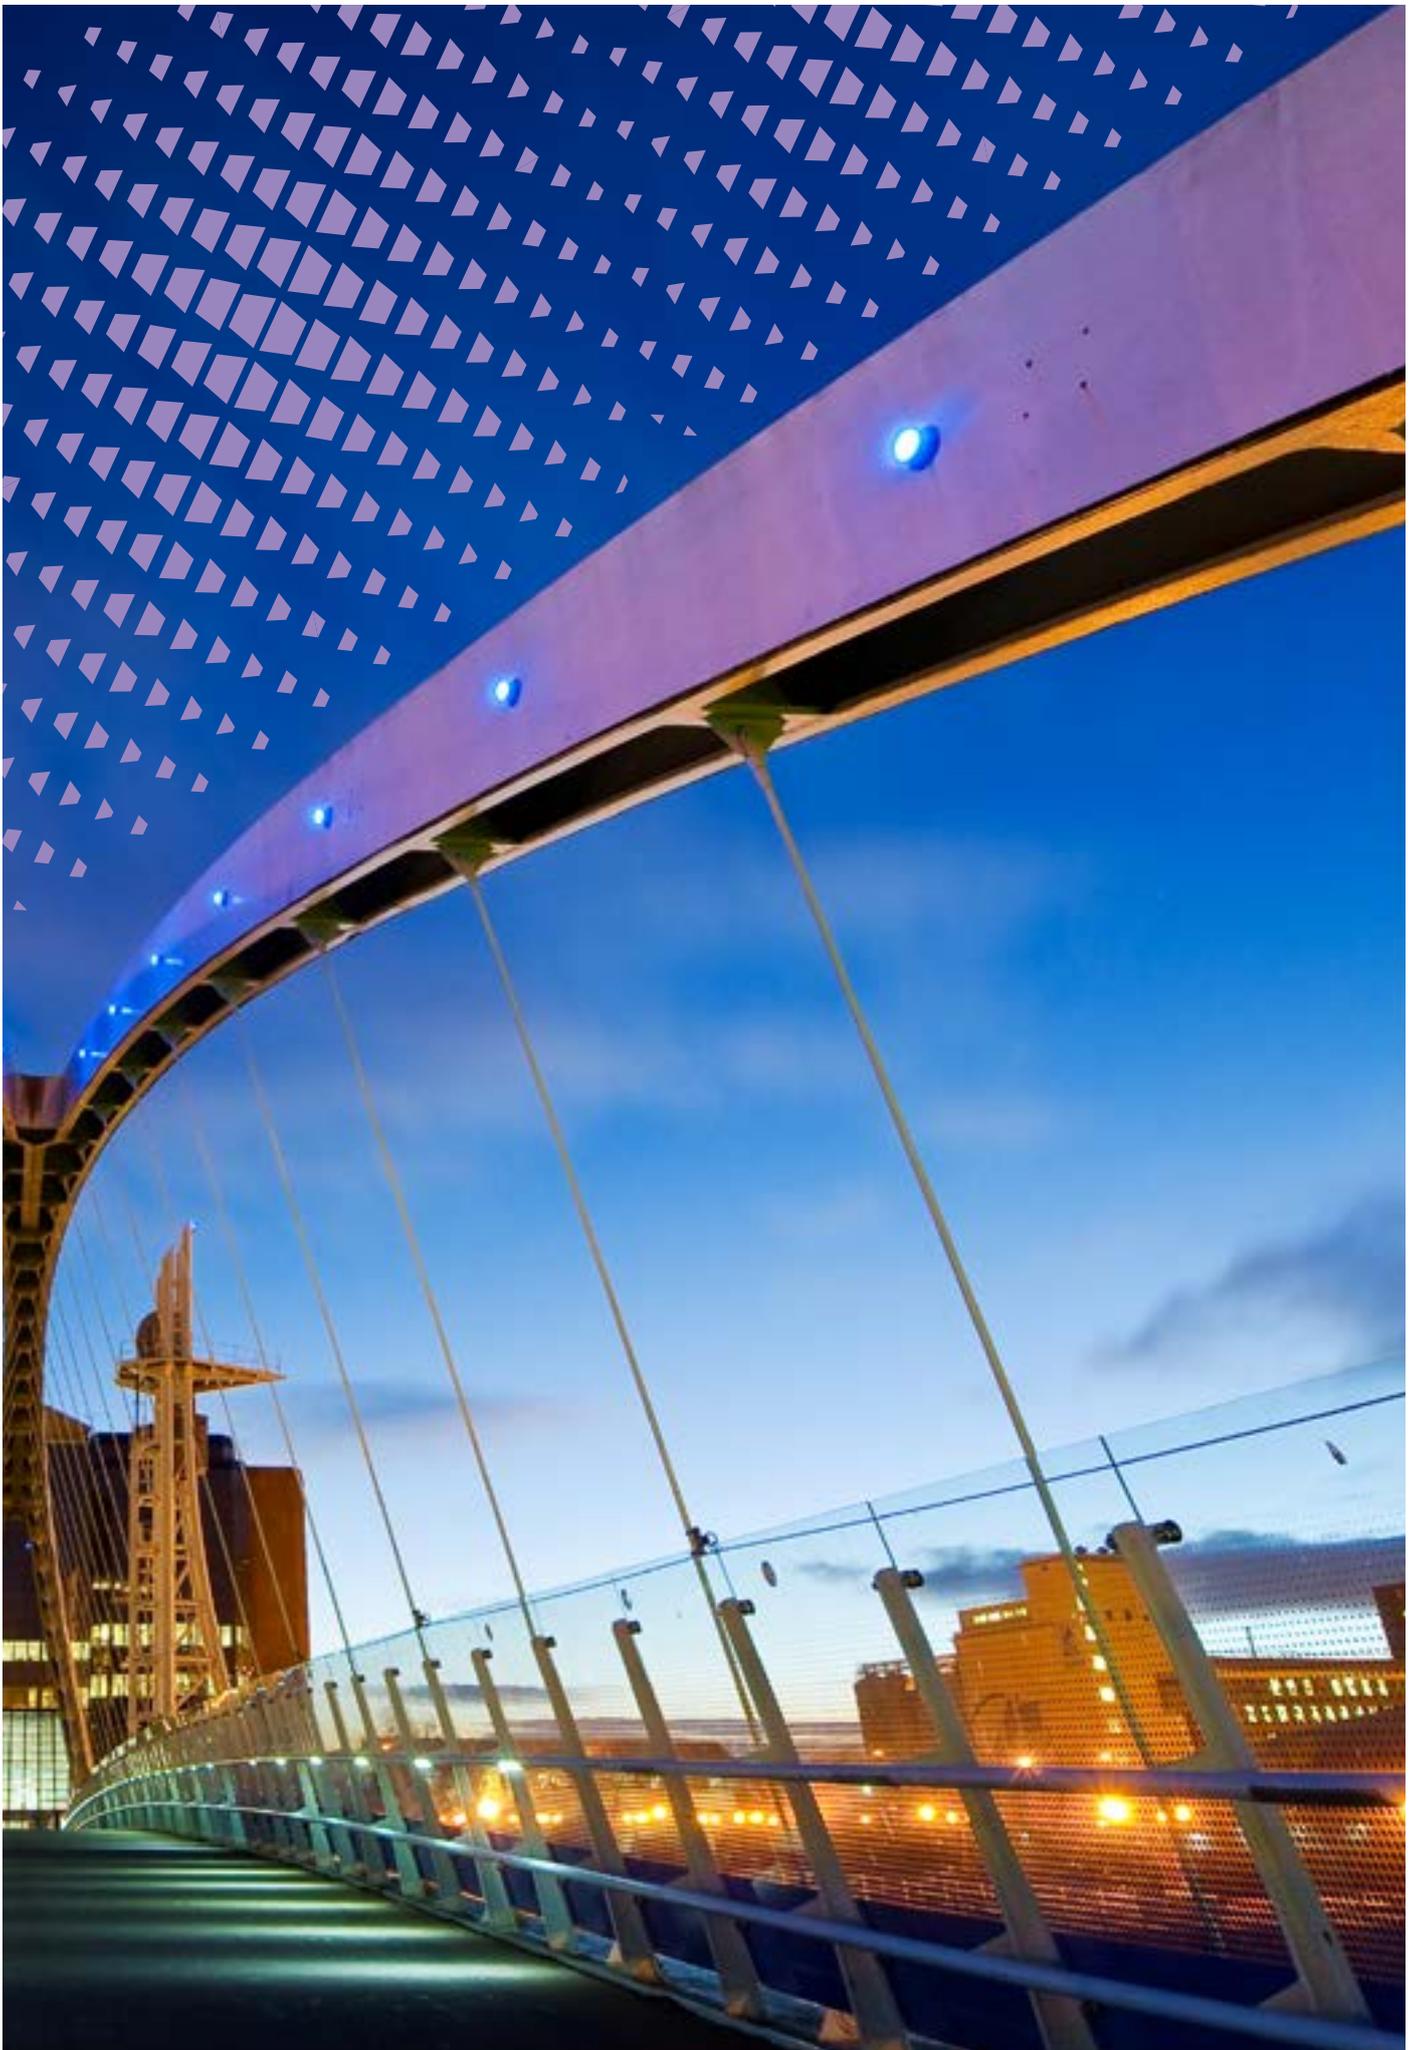

A large majority of our students share privately rented houses throughout their time on the course to fully immerse themselves in the film school experience.

We expect students to live within a reasonable distance to where you will be studying - please take into consideration the cost of traveling and the time it takes to get to central Manchester from where you choose to live.

The following areas are a good place to look for shared/student accommodation: Central Manchester, Oxford Road area, Fallowfield, Salford & Chorlton.

Manchester is well connected through public transport services; frequent buses that run all through the night, rail links, trams and cycle lanes which make it easy to get around.

Transport

Manchester City Centre is well connected via public transport across the city and to the surrounding areas.

Bus

In the city centre, there are regular buses running from the bus station in Piccadilly Gardens. Here you can get buses to the surrounding areas of Manchester. There are also 2 coach stations for further travel.

Train

For those living outside of the city, Manchester city centre is easily accessible from either Manchester Piccadilly, Oxford Road or Victoria station. There are also frequent trains which run to and from London Victoria.

Have a look on www.northernrailway.co.uk for train times and ticket prices and have a look on www.nationalexpress.com for coach times and ticket prices.

Bike

Manchester is very cyclist-friendly with accessible cycle lanes and bike storage all over the city. If you live a short distance from the city centre, it might be the most cost effective way to travel.

You may also want to look into bike hire in Manchester scheme:

Frequently asked questions

Most landlords/agents will ask you to sign a tenancy agreement. This is a legally binding document setting out each party's rights and responsibilities. By signing it, both you and the landlord have certain rights protected in law which can't be overwritten by the contract.

Before you sign, make sure you understand all the clauses, so there can be no nasty surprises after you've signed.

If asked to sign an agreement, it is likely to be an Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement and will normally last for at least six months, after which the tenancy will run on a monthly basis. However, many tenancies run for a fixed term, i.e. July 1st 2021 to June 30th 2022.

In this case make sure that you are happy with the length of the contract as it is very unlikely that you will be able to end the tenancy early.

The terms of the agreement must be in plain, intelligible language and not be unfair. For example, the tenant should not be restricted from breaking a fixed term agreement if the landlord is not in the same way, nor should they be subject to unreasonable rent increases or held to unreasonable penalty clauses (for example, extortionate charges for late payment of rent).

Get a tenancy agreement checked first by an informed person such as an advisor from the Citizens Advice Bureau. If the landlord/agent won't let you take the contract away to get it checked first, think twice about signing it. Spend a little extra time in getting your contract checked out to save time, money and stress later in the year.

What is the landlord responsible for?

- Heating and hot water installation
- Baths, sinks, basins and other sanitary installations
- The structure of the exterior of the property
- Repairs and safety of gas and electrical appliances
- Ensuring that any furniture that he or she supplies meets fire resistant requirements

What is the tenant responsible for?

- Water and sewage charges
- Utility bills – gas, electricity, telephone and internet connection (if any)
- To take care of the property
- Use the property in a responsible way
- Pay the rent as agreed
- Keep to the terms and conditions of the agreement

What rights do both the landlord and tenant have?

The landlord or his agents have the right to access the property at reasonable times during the day to carry out repairs for which they are responsible for and inspect the condition of the property.

24 hours' written notice to inspect the property must be given. Arrangement for access to the property must be written into the contract.

Tenants have the right to possess and enjoy the property during the tenancy without any interruption from the landlord.

This clause does not limit any of the rights made under this agreement that the tenant has allowed the landlord/ landlady to exercise. Neither does it prevent the landlord from taking lawful steps to enforce these rights if the tenant should break any of the terms of agreement.

What bills can I expect to pay?

Depending on your own personal consumption you can expect to pay for utility bills weekly or monthly.

Remember that if solely full time students occupy a property then they are exempt from Council Tax.

What is a deposit?

The deposit is generally the equivalent of one month's rent. Your landlord or agent must, under the 2004 Housing Act, protect your deposit within 14 days of receiving it as part of the Tenancy Deposit Protection Scheme and provide you with certain information relating to this.

This scheme ensures that deposits paid to the landlords are kept safe and that tenants get their deposits back at the end of the tenancy, so long as there hasn't been a breach of the tenancy agreement, such as unpaid rent. Remember that the money held as a deposit remains yours at all times and not the landlords, and only by mutual agreement should any money be deducted.

Your deposit, or part of it, will be withheld if you:

- Fail to return ALL keys at the end of the tenancy
- Are responsible for any damage to the property, either wilful or negligent
- Have not cleaned the property adequately
- Have left rubbish which needs removing from the property

Can I deduct my deposit from my last month's rent?

No, because to do so would be a breach of your contract. It is important that rent and deposits are separate.

What is a guarantor and will I need to sign a guarantor form?

A guarantor is someone who signs an agreement to pay for any rent or damages if the tenant fails to pay up. The guarantor will most likely be a parent or guardian.

Some landlords ask for a guarantor but not all do. So there are still plenty of properties to choose from if you don't have someone who will be a guarantor for you, you'll just need to look around.

A guarantor is taking on quite a large responsibility, particularly if you are signing a joint contract. For example, if your housemate hasn't paid their rent, your guarantor could be made to pay.

Do not sign a contract that requires a guarantor form until you and your guarantors have read the form and agreed to sign. If you have already signed a contract but a guarantor refuses to sign, you might not get the keys to the property. A good landlord will give you copies of the forms and time to check them through.

Ask the landlord to accept a limited guarantee from your guarantor e.g. just covering your rent/damages.

Tell your guarantor not to give too much personal information on the form e.g. NI number, bank details or passport details should not be necessary.

I am leaving the house a few weeks early - Can I get my deposit back early?

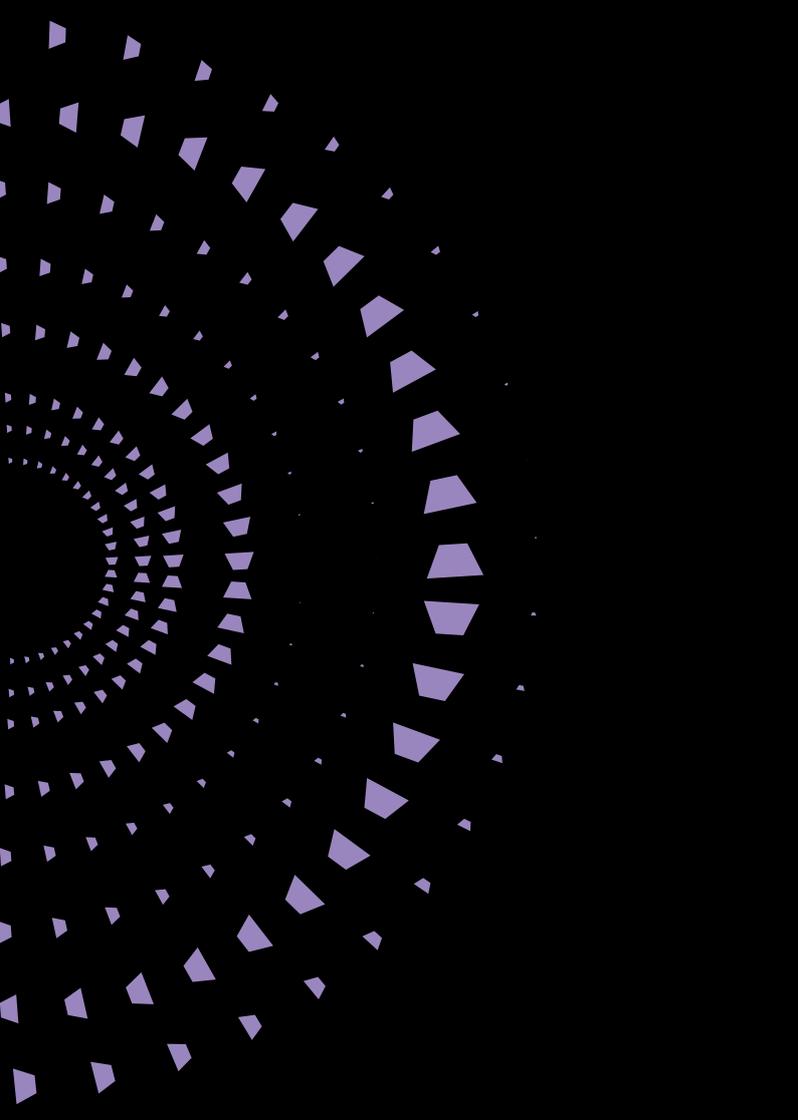

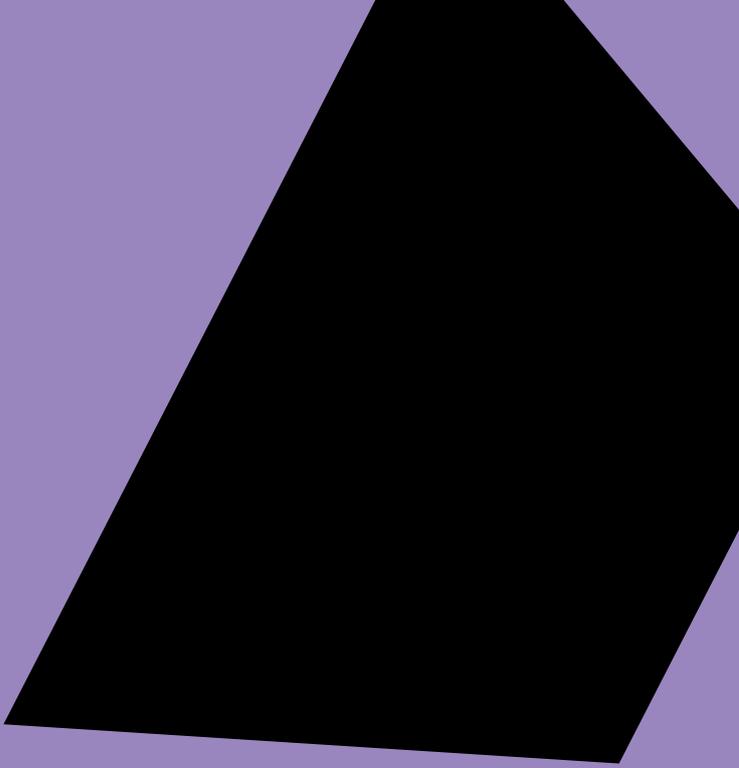

It may be possible for you to come to an arrangement for the early return of the deposit but the landlord/agent will obviously want to inspect the house and check all rent is paid.

We cannot afford to pay the final utility bills; can we leave our deposit or the landlord/agent to pay for them?

No, not if the bills are in the name of the tenants - the utility companies will chase the named persons and not the landlord/agent. Your deposit will be protected as part of the Tenancy Deposit Protection Scheme and therefore cannot be used by the landlord or agent.
